HELENA, Mont. March 3—Save for the passage of a large number of bills in either house, the sessions of the next to last day of the eleventh assembly were unmarked by special features. The general appropriation bills, carrying several million dollars, were passed by the house and reported to the senate. In the latter body the most important bills to pass were those enlarging the powers of the railroad commission, and another legalizing the sales of the state land board. This has particular reference to the Flathead county sales of timber land. The joint committee which has been conducting an inquiry into the state fair finances reported that there was no graft or colusion, but recommended in the future a strictor method in the keeping of accounts. lowering clouds darkened the city and lights began gleaming in the downtown district. Soon all the stores and offices were alight.

Men who have been fifty years at the White House have no recollection of scenes such as were witnessed there today in the closing hours of President today in the closing hours of President Roosevelt's administration. It was unprecedented in many ways, but chiefly in the hundreds of persons who called to exchange farewell with the returing chief executive. It is estimated that between 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. he received at least 2500 visitors.

The president stood the test with hardihood and joyousness. During all this time he stopped at intervals to sign bills or to attach his name to photographs brought to him.

OLYMPIA, Wash, March 3.—By a vote of 22 to 19, and without extended discussion, the senate this afternoon indefinitely postponed the bill fixing eight hours as a day's work for females. The measure had passed the house. The senate also went on record today as opposed to calling a convention to revise the constitution. The matter was presented in the form of a resolution calling for submission of the question at the next general election. The resolution required a two-thirds vote to pass, and was defeated by a margin of one vote. The president signed the District of Columbia, the fortifications, the army and naval appropriation bills. ## Ten Doctors Said He Would Die

"In 1903 we wrote you regarding my husband, who was suffering from heart trouble. He was superanuated by the North Georgian Conference. Ten doctors at different times said he would die. You advised Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Restorative Nervine; we did as advised, and improvement was apparent from the very first. He recovered and the Conference in 1904 gave him a charge. He never felt better, although he has very heavy work and does a great deal of camp meeting work. I am so glad we took your advice and gave him the medicine, and feel that I ought to let you know of the wonderful good results from its use." MRS. T. S. EDWARDS.

SACRAMENTO, Cal. March 3.—Another value attempt was made by the anti-Japanese element in the assembly today to exclude Japanese from the public schools. An unimportant school bill by Sackett of Ventura was called up for final passage, when Polsley of Red Binff offered an amendment, barring not only Chinese and Japanese, but all Asiatics. The amendment was quickly voted down.

CARSON, Nev., March 3.—Governor Dickerson, in an interview given out to-day, said that he would sign the antigambling bill "under proper conditions," should it come to him from the senate. What these qualifying conditions might be he did not state. The senate judiciary committee, which has the bill in charge, has not intimated when it will be ready to report.

Goose Grease No Longer Depend ed Upon Because Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Is Better.

[From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.] This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in de mand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. Geese are not very good to eat, but they are in great demand because of their grease, which is good to put on a cloth and tie around the neck of crompy patients. Jewish families nearly always have goose grease on hand. Most children, when they have croup, refuse to take the remedies offered them. The only thing to do is to hold their noses and make them take it. There used to be an old fash ioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the nations to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time.

Every cabinet officer in the city went to the White House during the day, with the heads of bureaus and the principal officials of their departments.
So great is the congestion in the streets, at the hotels and everywhere except at the vast Union station, large

Having encircled the globe with the battleship fleet, three thousand blue-jackets are here to take part in the Marching clubs are arriving from ev-ery direction, and they will form a conspicuous feature of the parade.
Probably the largest of these dele gations will be composed of the one thousand members of the New York County Republican club, which will have the distinction of escorting the retiring president to the station before falling in line in the inaugural parade. Mr. Roosevelt will walk to the station in true democratic style, and will oc-

President-elect Taft and Vice-Presi dent-elect Sherman both are here, ready to be inducted into their respective offices. Practically all the Tafts are here, too, and Mr. Sherman's family came in last night aboard a special train, bearing also the Business Men's club of Utien, N. Y., Mr. Sherman's home city. The Syracuse Business Men's club arrived on the same train, and Mr. Sherman met them at the station and, after declaring "boys. I am with you," took his place between the leaders of the column and marched away with them to their hotel.
